Journey Performing Arts Center Studio Classes Fact Sheet

What are Journey's Studio Classes?

Journey Performing Arts Center is pleased to provide studio classes for Atlanta area residents! JPAC will provide a safe environment with professional staff trained in First Aid and CPR. Journey's Children's Classes are designed to strengthen dancers physically and emotionally. Classes teach discipline, self esteem and teamwork in addition to specific dance curriculum. Classes include a hygiene and etiquette workshop from a specialist in the field. Classes build from week to week and students participate in a spectacular concert at the end of the session. Children have lots of fun in a caring and safe environment.

What types of classes are involved in the Studio Classes?

Journey is currently offering children's classes. Our adult programs are seasonal and dates are available on our website. We have an array of performing arts based classes to choose from.

- Dance: We offer classes in Creative Movement, Ballet level 1-2 (beginner Ballet), Pre-Ballet/Jazz, Pre-Tap, Jazz/Hip Hop level 1-2 (beginner Jazz), Teen Jazz/Hip Hop. All classes are designed to teach students the fundamentals and terminology of each dance style. Class will consist of a basic warm-up, technique, choreography, stretch and cool down.
- Drama 101: The purpose of this class is to learn the basic fundamentals of the Art of Acting. During this course students will learn all aspects of the theater, including stage direction, costuming, character building, technical theater, directing, and arts administration. This class is an introduction of what it takes to bring a production to life.
- Instrument Lessons: This course teaches students to play an instrument of their choice and introduces them to music notation and music theory. Class will begin with music theory. Workbooks and other materials will be assigned to increase the student's ability to play and read music.
- Music Theory: This class is designed as an introduction to music theory, ear training and sight reading. Topics covered and assigned learning activities enhance the musicianship of students enrolled in both the Vocal and Music Programs by providing a foundation of music fundamentals and developing aural skills. Lessons consist of lectures, demonstrations, discussions, learning activities and music performances.
- Vocal Lessons: This course is designed as an introduction to vocal technique, performance skills, and vocal music repertoire. The information, skills and training covered in this class are intended to advance the vocal ability and experience of the students.
